

GROUNDS REPORT

May, 2004

Routine grounds activities have been performed during the preceding month. The lawn contractor has kept the grass mown. The bed by the brick sign, which is not covered by the sprinkler system, has been kept watered. A soil sample from the shrubbery area adjoining the churchyard wall has been taken to the Clemson Extension Office for analysis to determine lime and fertilizer needs.